PRESENTATION: 2012-2013 Budget presentations

1. Elementary
2. Secondary
3. Staffing with projected level of retirements and replacements
4. Projections for budget cuts to balance budget by Business Manager

Mrs. Finnochio presented the proposed 2012-2013 elementary budget of $215,687.00. She noted the increase is for purchasing math textbooks.

She presented the high school budget in the amount of $222,217.00, which is the same as last year.

She presented the cost to up-grade to flat screen monitors and windows 7. This will be $144,766.00 some of which may come from this year's budget.

With the proposed changes this brings the deficit to approximately $370,000.00. She suggested using some of the designated fund balance to pay for PSERS and health costs.

FIRST READING: First reading of the following revised policy: #006 Meetings.

SUPERINTENDENT'S COMMENTS

Dr. Chichura said he and some Board members attended the legislative meeting last Thursday.

PRINCIPAL'S COMMENTS

Mr. Doster reported we had two students make the 2012 Superstar Scholastic Team; Arts Alive is April 25th; PSSA started today for science; and the wrestling mat would be $9,000.00.

Mr. Presley said PSSA starts Tuesday; Channel 16 is coming to do a segment on Good Morning PA; the state regulations go into effect on May 1, 2012, and there are approximately 70 student's still requiring vaccinations.

Mrs. Pipitone said we have a lot of wonderful teachers that are retiring this year. She wanted to especially thank Sue Schaffer for her dedication to the students.
